Subject: Submissions on Enforcement in the Digital Environment

Submission

As a cartoonist, I often allow my work to be shared with authorisation via internet sites. It has led to a greater dissemination of my work and increased export sales. Customers now come to me asking for permission to use my work in their professional capacity. I do not wish those potential clients to be discouraged from finding and using my work.

I wish also use preserve the right to use part or all copyrighted works, trademarks etc for comment, review and satire.
